FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HARRY POTTER DAY AT THE LIBRARY

(Panama City, Fla.) It's time to gather up your wands and head to Platform 9 3/4. Saturday, July 22nd from 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. is Harry Potter Day at the Bay County Public Library. Everyone is encouraged to dress as their favorite Harry Potter character. Muggles (those who lack magical abilities) are more than welcome to attend the festivities. Our featured guest is OutRacheous Cosplay, who will attend as Draco Malfoy!

“This year marks the 20th anniversary of the first release of “Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone” by J. K. Rowling. Our librarians and staff are excited to transform the library into Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry.” says Sarah Burris, Community Relations and Marketing Coordinator. “We even have a schedule of classes to attend in Potions, Care of Magical Creatures, and Herbology.”

There will be games, crafts, snacks, and a photo booth. Professor Trelawney will be monitoring the library to read your fortune in finding your house and perhaps the next book to read! Does anyone speak Parseltongue? The Bagel Maker is providing a GIANT bagel snake. The event is sponsored by the Bay County Public Library Foundation.

The Bay County Public Library is located at 898 W. 11th Street, Panama City, FL 32401. Call 850-522-2100 or visit www.nwrls.com for more information.
